

Gold Medal Reading
Instructions for Students/Parents

1. Log-in to the website at: www.goldmedalreading.org

2. The Gold Medal Reading Program is for after-school reading between the dates of October 6, 2014 and May 15, 2015. Please do not enter books you have read prior to October 6th.
3. Sign in:
 - a. Log in ID: Student's first and last name in lower case, no space. (Since log ins must be unique. Students with same fist and last name can have an extra letter like a middle initial or number at the end)

- b. Password: Your Childs four digit password that is used for the classroom wiki
- c. The first time you log in you will be asked for a parent's email address. This will be used for Gold Medal Reading status reports. This must be a parent's email address. Student email addresses will not be allowed.

4. Click on My Books

5. Click on Enter a New Book

- a. Fill in the form with name of book, author, page count, date finished then click Submit. (Note: author first and last name are optional)

Until the book is accepted by the teacher, you can correct any mistakes you make on this entry by using the change selected book or delete selected book tabs located at the bottom of the Books Read list. Once the book has been accepted by your teacher, you cannot change it.

- i. Third through sixth graders will count pages.
- ii. Kindergarten, First and Second Graders will count books

Note: Kindergarten, First or Second Grade: Every book counts as one unless it is over 25 pages. If a book has over 25 pages, one book credit will be given for every 25 pages read. (i.e. Junie B. Jones, 63 pages will count as 2 books (63/25). There will not be a carry over for the remaining pages.

6. Repeat these steps each book read.

7. Click on My Prizes to see your level, which prizes you have earned and how much more you need to read to reach the next prize level.

- a. Reading level information is also available at the bottom of the My Books screen.
8. Teacher acceptance/rejection of books
- a. Your teacher will review the books you have submitted once a week and will approve or reject them. Once approved, you will move to the next Level.
- b. Books will be rejected if page count appears to be incorrect or if the teacher feels the student could not have read the book in the time indicated. Parents will get an email from telling them if a book has been rejected and asking them to correct the entry.

If a parent has a question about a rejected book, they can contact their teacher by email for clarification.
