Solana Beach School District Announces the Appointment of Michael Hodson as Assistant Superintendent Business Services

The Board of Education of the Solana Beach School District unanimously appointed Mr. Michael Hodson to the position of Assistant Superintendent Business Services. Mr. Hodson assumed his position Wednesday, December 1, 2021.

Mr. Hodson joins the District having served as Chief Business Official or Assistant Superintendent of Business in Marysville Joint Unified, Walnut Valley Unified, and El Monte Union High school districts. Mr. Hodson brings his expertise and experience to support and provide leadership for all business operations including budgets, accounting, payroll, benefits, risk management, contracting, warehouse, facilities, purchasing, nutrition services and the Child Development Center.

"I am excited to be a part of Solana Beach School District," said Mr. Hodson. "This is an excellent, well-regarded district with a committed professional staff."

Mr. Hodson previously served as a Lieutenant Colonel and Commanding Officer in the US Marine Corps. He earned an MBA from Webster University, an MA from the Naval War College, and a BS from California State University, Chico.

"We are pleased to welcome Mr. Hodson to our team," said SBSB Board President Vicki King. "He brings a wealth of experience and knowledge of school district business operations to Solana Beach School District."
