Solana Beach School District Seeks Applicants for Openings On Measure JJ Independent Citizens' Oversight Committee

SOLANA BEACH, CA (March 18, 2022) – The Solana Beach School District (SBSD) has extended the application deadline for volunteers to serve on its Independent Citizens' Oversight Committee (ICOC). The ICOC ensures bond proceeds are specifically used to support school construction projects as authorized by Measure JJ, which was passed by local voters in November 2016. Committee members serve two-year terms and provide oversight of the District's $105 million school bond construction program.

The District seeks four (4) representatives for the following positions:

1. One (1) member shall be active in a bona fide taxpayers' organization.
2. One (1) member shall be the parent or guardian of a child enrolled in the District.
3. One (1) member shall be both a parent or guardian of a child enrolled in the District and an active parent-teacher organization, such as a PTA/PTO or school site council.
4. One (1) Senior community representative

Community members interested in applying to serve on SBSBD's ICOC can get more information and access the application at www.sbsd.net/ICOC. Applications are due by April 22, 2022, and candidates will be interviewed in May 2022. The SBSBD Board of Education will consider ICOC member appointments at the regularly scheduled Board meeting on June 16, 2022.
